Full-Time
Reports To: Chief Program Officer
Supervisory Responsibilities: Yes

YouthBuild Philadelphia Charter School
Location: Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

Mission
YouthBuild Philadelphia Charter School's mission is to empower young adults (18-20 year-olds) to develop skills and connect to opportunities by fostering an environment of love, support, and respect for their whole person. Students graduate high school and successfully transition to college and career as critically conscious leaders, committed to positive change for themselves and their communities.

Vision
YouthBuild Philadelphia Charter School provides an outstanding alternative education that activates the capacity of all students to learn, achieve and grow. YBPCS will be recognized as a model of authentic experiential learning, not only among programs serving out-of-school youth, but also among all high-achieving schools and youth programs in the country.

High expectations, a nurturing climate, personalized culture and rigorous real world learning experiences ensures that graduates are poised for life-long learning and career advancement. It is our vision that YouthBuild graduates will emerge as highly accomplished, self-sufficient, self-aware and socially conscious citizens. Graduates will be energized about their futures and build support networks for their personal, social and emotional health and well-being.

YouthBuild Philadelphia Charter School will maximize its capacity to engage each student’s passion, tap into his or her individual potential and provide him or her with real opportunities for personal and professional transformation.

Values
YBPCS' values are deeply held and come from a love of humanity and a perspective that views each student as a community asset. The programs three core values - respect, excellence and perseverance – are reinforced through all aspects of the program.

Impact Statement
Young people in Philadelphia who are disconnected will build skills and access resources and opportunities to achieve economic stability and personal development, and become critically conscious leaders within their communities.
Job Summary
The Senior Director of Engagement and Retention provides leadership for the overall direction and strengthening of the engagement and retention strategy across YouthBuild Philadelphia Charter School's programming. This individual is responsible for ensuring delivery of high quality enrichment and supportive programming that is designed to foster applicant, student, and alumni belonging, support, leadership, and ultimately retention with YouthBuild. The engagement and retention team, which consists of Student Life, Student and Alumni Success Management, and Program Operations, works to complement YouthBuild's skill development team by collaborating around academic and workforce learning objectives while developing programming that enriches the personal and professional development of applicants, students, and alumni.

The engagement and retention strategy at YouthBuild Philadelphia Charter School must be a comprehensive and integrated schoolwide plan. Therefore, the Senior Director of Engagement and Retention is a critical member of the Senior Leadership Team at YouthBuild Philadelphia. As a member of the Senior Leadership Team, this individual will be responsible for advising and updating the leadership team around enrollment and retention targets, ensuring that the restorative practices framework is at the heart and center of all school wide initiatives, appropriately informing and managing the budget as it relates to enrollment and retention, and modeling fair practice in decision making on behalf of the school.

Responsibilities and Duties:
- Provides support and guidance to key student support departments and overall programming in order to achieve and consistently maintain a school wide retention rate, including applicants, students, and alumni, of 80% or higher.
- Reviews and makes recommendations to the Senior Leadership Team around enrollment and retention projections and improvement to the organization's engagement and retention strategy.
- Supports the delivery and coordination of high quality biweekly training and professional development workshops for approximately 80 school comprehensive staff.
- Uses data to make strategic decisions that will allow YouthBuild to meet or exceed retention targets by the end of the year.
- Actively participates in the Board of Director’s Program Committee to enhance program implementation and standards, as well as to keep the Board informed of program developments and progress.
- Effectively supervises and supports the professional growth and development of the Director of Student Life, Director of Student and Alumni Success Management, and the Program Operations Director, in a way that advances the school’s mission and vision.
- Consistently models restorative practices and supports the strengthening of restorative practices across the YouthBuild community.
- Leads biweekly engagement and retention team meetings to discuss operational and strategic planning around applicant, student, and alumni support.
- Establishes and actively strengthens mission critical partnerships around barrier reduction/removal, essential life skills, and applicant referral opportunities.
- Provides consistent oversight and project management support for graduation and student mental toughness/orientation planning.
- Oversees the planning and implementation of school wide special events including but not limited to the international spring break service trip, community Thanksgiving celebration, staff appreciation day, and the MLK Day of Service, among other school wide events.

- Develops, implements, and assesses applicant, student, and alumni engagement spaces designed to facilitate racial and other social identity development.
- Oversees the YouthBuild reengagement process to ensure that the system for reengaging students is equitable, reflective, student centered, and that it consistently involves critical staff necessary for meaningful student re-engagement.
- Reflects school-wide commitment to developing critical consciousness with young leaders via deep consideration of social identities and racial literacy priorities.
- Represents YouthBuild at public events and interface with partners and funders, as necessary.
- Oversees the operating budgets for the engagement and retention team.
- Other responsibilities as assigned by the Chief Program Officer.

Qualifications

YBPCS requires the following qualifications for this position:

- Master’s degree or equivalent experience with at least seven of supervisory experience in a youth development non-profit or school based environment;
